

7.2: Addition and Subtraction of Vectors

Alex L.

October 14, 2024

Def: The vector sum is done by calculating the effect of one vector after another. It doesn't matter in which order you do these, as the vector sum is commutative and associative.

$$\vec{a} - \vec{b} = \vec{a} + \vec{-b}$$